BUILDING HISTORY:

When Fairbanks was being established the Westmark was better known as the Travelers Inn, built by former Governor Walter Hickel. In 1954 Westmark purchased the property and has thrived as a successful hotel since. In 1971 the South Tower was built; then again in 1997 our beautiful lobby and the Bear n Seal restaurant were added. It was not until 2004 that yet another addition would be built and named the North Tower. The Bear 'n Seal restaurant became the Northern Latitudes dining area and our delicious Red Lantern Steak & Spirits restaurant was added as well. The Bear 'n Seal name took on a new look and is now our beautiful Bear 'n Seal Hospitality Suite.
