

WESTMARK INN SKAGWAY

Fact Sheet

INTRODUCTION:

The 94 room Westmark Inn Skagway sits nestled in the middle of downtown Skagway amidst the Klondike Gold Rush National Historic Park. The guestrooms primarily serve vacationing travelers, while also serving government and business travelers alike. The Chilkoot Dining Room and Bonanza Bar & Grill offer a special dining experience, where you will find friendly service and fine food. The Chilkoot is the primary offering to our overnight guests while the Bonanza caters more to daytime cruise ship foot traffic, seasonal staff, and local clientele.

BUILDING HISTORY:

The 94 room Westmark Inn Skagway was built piecemeal beginning in the late 1950's by a young retired WW II pilot named Chuck West. The Inn was originally called the Klondike and stands much as it did in its day. The main building has formerly served as an Army Barracks, followed by serving as an integral component of the original Alaska Land Tour product that housed travelers touring Alaska and the Yukon Territory.
